

The Meaning Behind the Words

Several words used in The Risen, the Chosen, and the Dark – Book 1: The Dawn of It All are actually Hebrew words, or words that are based off of them. Below are just a few examples, as well as their Hebrew meanings and how they are written out in Hebrew. Remember, Hebrew is read and written from right to left. Try writing the Hebrew words a few times on the lines provided.

Nahgeyd: Prince _____	נָגִיד
Tsayel: Shade, Protection _____	צֵל
Davar: Word _____	דָּבָר
Säefer: Book _____	סֵפֶר
Malkah: Queen _____	מַלְכָּה
Kahdosh: Holy _____	קָדוֹשׁ
Gibor: Mighty Man or Warrior _____	גִּבּוֹר
Barak: Flash of Light, Lightning _____	בָּרָק
Emunah: Faith _____	אֱמוּנָה
Yom: Day _____	יוֹם
Zayv: Wolf _____	זָאֵב
Shwahteylef: Bat _____	עֲטֹלֶף
Rosh: Head, Top, Chief _____	רֹאשׁ
Aysh (p. 219): Fire _____	אֵשׁ
Khahsh-Mahl (p. 319): Electricity _____	חַשְׁמַל